Worst case: The Nittany Lions don't have much in the way of talented recruits to help Battle this season,football jersey designer, and if the sophomore Tim Frazier doesn't significantly improve,reebok nfl jersey, the Lions will be staring down the barrel of another last-place Big Ten finish. Hoping for much more seems less optimistic than foolish.

PURDUE

Best case: Like their main competition for the Big Ten title — the Michigan State Spartans — Matt Painter's charges have very clear aspirations for the 2010-11 season. They want to win the conference title. They want to get a No. 1 seed on Selection Sunday. They want to appear in the 2011 Final Four. And they want to win the title. All four of those goals were within reach before Robbie Hummel tore his ACL in late February. And all four of those goals are why Purdue's Big Three — Hummel,baseball jerseys uniforms, E'Twaun Moore,Browns Jerseys,cheap customized jerseys,nike nfl jerseys, and JaJuan Johnson, who might have been a first-round pick in June — returned for their senior seasons. Purdue will have to find a way to compensate for the loss of Chris Kramer,football jersey numbers, perhaps the country's best defender for much of his career, but assuming Hummel and company stay healthy, the Boilermakers should remain among the nation's elite for most of the season. The next step? Finishing the job.

Worst case: Even assuming Moore,kentucky basketball jersey, Hummel and Johnson stay healthy,authentic customized nfl jerseys, replacing Kramer will be nearly impossible. Purdue's offense was good but not great last season; it got considerably worse without Hummel, ending the season at No. 70 overall in offensive efficiency. (See Purdue's 11-point first-half performance against Minnesota in the Big Ten tournament for anecdotal evidence. Things got pretty putrid.) Purdue's defense,cheap authentic nba jerseys, meanwhile, was the third-most efficient in the country. Kramer had a lot to do with that. For Painter to maintain his team's trademark stifling man-to-man, Moore will have to replace Kramer's ability to match up with opponents' best players. Junior guard Lewis Jackson will have to replace Kramer's efficient guard play. Someone will have to become a consistent spot shooter. For all of the Big Three's brilliance,new nike jerseys, the 2010-11 Boilermakers do have a couple of holes, and if Kramer proves to be even more underrated than we thought, the Boilermakers could have matchup problems with deep, versatile lineups. Think Michigan State. Think Duke. Think Syracuse. That's Purdue's competition in 2010-11. That lofty company is a testament to how good this team should be. It's also a major challenge,lsu football jersey, even for a trio this uniquely talented.

WISCONSIN

Best case: Pop quiz. Since Bo Ryan took over at Wisconsin in 2001-02,nfl jerseys wholesale, the Badgers have:

A: Gone to the NCAA tournament every year B: Won at least one game in those tournament appearances in every year but one C: Finished no lower than fourth place in the Big Ten D: All of the above You don't have to be a good tester to know the answer. It's "D." Ryan's Badgers have been a model of consistency for a decade, which makes predicting their performance in 2010-11 pretty easy. Wisconsin will compete for the Big Ten title and finish near the top of the conference. The Badgers will win almost all of their games at home. They'll make the NCAA tournament, and probably win at least one game. Whether they can do something more will come down to how well Ryan's team replaces departed guards Trevon Hughes and Jason Bohannon. Still, senior forward Jon Leuer should compete for Big Ten Player of the Year honors as Ryan's system — that inexorably consistent swing offense his players execute so masterfully — trucks along for another successful season.
